Zealand is not a part of the British dominions; and, recently, that King William IV. made the most public, solemn, and authentic declaration, which it was possible to make, that New Zealand was a substantive and independent State.

The recognition by the King, Lords, and Commons of Great Britain of the fact that New Zealand is not part of the British dominions, will be found in the Statutes 57 Geo. III., cap. 53, 4 Geo. IV., cap. 96, sec. 3, and 9 Geo. IV., cap. 83, sec. 4. The following are extracts from each of these Statutes.

The Act 57 Geo. III., cap. 53, is entitled "An Act for the more effectual punishment of murders and manslaughter committed in places not within His Majesty's dominions." It sets forth, "Whereas grievous murders and manslaughter have been committed at the settlement in the Bay of Hoonah, in South America, &c.;" "and the like offences have also been committed in the South Pacific Ocean, as well on the high seas as on land, in the islands of New Zealand and Otaheite, and in other islands, countries, and places not within His Majesty's dominions, by the masters and crews of British ships, and other persons, who have for the most part deserted from, or left, their ships, and have continued to live and reside amongst the inhabitants of those islands," &c.; and the Act then provides for the punishment of offences so committed "in the said islands of New Zealand and Otaheite, or within any other islands, countries, or places not within His Majesty's dominions, nor subject to any other European State or Power," &c.

The Statute 4 Geo. IV., cap. 56, sec. 3, enacts that the Supreme Courts in the Colonies of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land may try offences "committed in the islands of New Zealand, Otaheite, or any other island, country, or place, situate in the Indian or Pacific Oceans, and not subject to His Majesty or to any European State," if such offences were committed by British subjects.

The Statute 9 Geo. IV., cap. 83, sec. 4, repeats that enactment in the same words, adding, only, that the punishment of the offence shall be the same as if the crime had been committed in England.

The recognition by King William IV. of New Zealand as a substantive and independent state is shown by the following narrative.

On the 16th of November, 1831, a letter to King William IV. from thirteen of the Chiefs of New Zealand was transmitted to Lord Gosford, praying the protection of the British Crown against the neighbouring tribes, and against British subjects residing in the Islands.

On the 14th of June, 1832, Lord Ripon despatched Mr. Busby as British Resident, partly to protect British commerce, and partly to repress the outrages of British subjects on the natives. His Lordship sent with Mr. Busby a letter to the Chiefs, in which the King was made to address them as an independent people. Their request was requested for Mr. Busby, and they were reminded of the benefits which they would derive from "the friendship and alliance of Great Britain."

In the month of June, 1832, a Bill was brought into the House of Commons for the prevention of crimes committed by His Majesty's subjects, "in New Zealand and in other islands in the Pacific, not being within His Majesty's Dominions." The Bill was rejected, because Parliament could not lawfully legislate for a foreign country.

On the 13th of April, 1833, the Governor of New South Wales, in obedience to Lord Ripon's orders, addressed instructions to Mr. Busby, in which New Zealand was expressly mentioned as a foreign country, and Mr. Busby himself, as being accredited to the Chiefs. That document throughout assumes the independence of New Zealand.

On the 29th of April, 1834, General Bourke transmitted to Lord Stanley a proposal from Mr. Busby, for establishing a national flag for tribes of New Zealand, "in their collective capacity," and advised that ships built in the Island, and registered by the Chiefs, should have their registers respected in their intercourse with the British possessions. Sir R. Bourke reported that he had sent three patterns of flags, one of which had been selected by the Chiefs, that the Chiefs had accordingly assembled, with the commanders of the British and three American ships, to witness the inauguration of the flag at which the officers of H.M.S. "Alligator" were also present. The flag had been declared to be "the National Flag" of New Zealand, and being hoisted, was saluted with twenty-one guns by the "Alligator," a British ship of war.

On the 21st of December, 1834, a despatch was addressed to Sir R. Bourke by Lord Aberdeen, approving all those proceedings in the name of the King, and sending a copy of a letter from the Admiralty, stating that they had instructed their officers to give effect to the New Zealand Registers, and to acknowledge and respect the national Flag of New Zealand.

If these solemn Acts of the Parliament, and of the King of Great Britain, are not enough to show that the pretensions made by this Company on behalf of Her Majesty is unfounded, it might still further be repelled by a minute narrative of all the relations between New Zealand and the adjacent British Colonies, and especially by the judicial decisions of the superior Courts of those Colonies. It is presumed, however, that, after the preceding statement, it would be superfluous to accumulate arguments of that nature, and the rather because they could not be intelligibly stated without entering into long and tedious details.

A letter to Mr. Marsh conveys some general information. Why the Mission, save only for the fact of their belonging to the Church of England, should have been the target for the incessant attacks of the notorious Dr. Lang,--attacks continued until a late occasion, when, upon being fairly challenged to make good his words, he shewed the white feather--is hard to say. Of the proceedings of the New Zealand Land Company, Mr. Williams speaks with his usual freedom of expression. He was not the only one who suffered through plain speaking about so potent an association. His prediction that the services of Mr. Clarke, as Protector, would be dispensed with, was fulfilled; but, fortunately, not until Mr. Clarke's reputation for able dealing with the natives had been fully established by Governor FitzRoy.

My dear Sir,

I have been waiting from day to day ever since you left expecting to hear something from Bell regarding the new order of things so as to have something to tell you but no receipt indeed that I have been turned out of your room and am now occupying Bell's old place down stairs and consequently Rice is separated from her and that there is much alteration in their rooms and every one else being and changing about, I see little or no attention in this matter Government. A few days after you left I saw a minute in red ink addressed to you by Bell proposing to divide £3. with you in paying for the celebrated pocket, but he writes but approves it on behalf of the Govt. What do you think of that? shortly afterwards I saw him and he most cheerfully agreed to allow me £1 a day for my 5 minutes afterwards I wrote out the memo. for approval and it was returned the following

The English mail is in and the only news I have heard is from the war in America, 20,000 of the hostesses killed is that hot fightful to contemplate. I am writing this at home as the noise of hammer and saw is at the office is awful. However I shall keep it open in the hope of hearing something to day to send you how that Overalls is up. Paton give me the £150. taking back £1- and sends me to say that the money is your hands he will deposit to receive on demand - so you had better send up a cheque for the amount to me and I shall put it with his other money. Your shoe maker has a bill of £4 or £5 against you send that up also that I may pay him as he is hard up and I am stucked. That amount about will give me before I have done with it.

Give my best remembrance to Mr. & Mrs. Campbell I hope they are happy in their new home.

I have just seen Bob who says there is nothing new - so you will have to put up with this meagre letter for the present. I wonder if your brother Alexander could supply me soon with 10 or 15 bushels of fine clean grass cut seed ~~off~~ the run. Will you ask him if you please this is a matter of great importance to me as drain the land all ready for it to be down

you a line when I come back from Kaipara -

My dear Sir,

I have been waiting from day to day ever since you left expecting to hear something from Bell regarding this new order of things so as to have something to tell you but no. Receipt indeed that I have been turned out of your room and am now occupying Bell's old place down stairs and consequently Rice is separated from me and that there is much attention in the rooms and long over checking and changing about, I see little or no attention in this model Government. A few days after you left I saw a minute in red ink addressed to you by Bell proposing to divide £3. with you in paying for the celebrated pocket. but he could not approve it on behalf of the Govt. What do you think of that eh? shortly afterwards I saw him and he most cheerfully agreed to allow me £1- a day forever. 5 minutes afterwards I wrote out the memo. for approval and it was returned the following

Ray disallows - Bell is a humbug but Skappou. This fact is no information to you - I am off again to Kaipara to purchase more land the arrangements for which I have concluded since you left - Hunter Brown is to be appointed R. M. he has gone over with Luntz and all the cadets for a tour of inspection and while I am writing this they are waiting for me and let them say I. Sinclair was very impudent to me the other day about his cadets and I gave him what he did not bargain for - and packed all off to Kaipara - Soon after you sailed I gave a grand dinner party at Kaler's and your humble servant was at the end of the table in a claw ~~hammer~~ hammer, feeling for the first time uncomfortable in that room, in his life - Will you say to Mr. Campbell that I have really been to the Karaka - Beaumont is up with his bride, and Suet Watkin looking quite jolly yesterday evening but he was very loud about his old land claims on the Wairou - It is pity he could not take these claims on his back to Yorkshire

FRAMED LAWS OF "MOAI CROWN" KING WILLIAM IV FEDERAL STATE PARLIAMENT OF NEW ZEALAND

Constitution Act 1852

ENGLISH VERSION.

"The New Zealand Constitution Act, 1852"—
18 and 16 Victoria, Cap. 72, Sec. 71.

Her Majesty may cause Laws of Aboriginal Native Inhabitants to be maintained.

Passed 30th of June, 1852.

Section 71.—And Whereas it may be expedient that the Laws, Customs, and Usages of the Aboriginal or Native Inhabitants of New Zealand, so far as they are not repugnant to the general principles of Humanity, should for the present be maintained for the Government of themselves, in all their relations to and dealings with each other, and that particular districts should be set apart within which Laws, Customs, or Usages should be so observed. It should be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Letters Patent to be issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom from time to time to make Provisions for the purposes aforesaid, any repugnancy of any such Native's Laws, Customs, or Usages, to the Law of England or to in any part thereof, in any wise notwithstanding.

'An Act to grant a representative constitution to the colony of New Zealand' was passed by the British Parliament in 1852. The act set up six provinces to be governed by elected councils. Section 7 stated that eligible voters were males aged 21 or over who owned freehold land worth at least £50, or leased land for £10 or more a year. This act therefore did not exclude Māori males from voting, and some Māori voted in the first elections held after it was passed. However, Māori traditionally owned land on a tribal basis, and only a small minority owned or leased freehold land in the 1850s. Therefore, non-Māori voters far outnumbered Māori.

This extract from the act was published in several successive issues of the Taranaki Herald from 8 December 1852. Section 71 was never implemented.

A party to which a debt is owed that has proved the debt in a legal proceeding and that is entitled to use judicial process to collect the debt; the owner of an unsatisfied court decision.

A party that wins a monetary award in a lawsuit is known as a judgment creditor until the award is paid, or satisfied. The losing party, which must pay the award, is known as a Judgment Debtor. A judgment creditor is legally entitled to enforce the debt with the assistance of the court.

State laws provide remedies to a judgment creditor in collecting the amount of the judgment. These measures bring the debtor's property into the custody of the court in order to satisfy the debtor's obligation: they involve the seizure of property and money. The process of enforcing the judgment debt in this way is called execution. The process commences with a hearing called a supplementary proceeding. The judgment debtor is summoned to appear before the court for a hearing to determine the nature and value of the debtor's property. If the property is subject to execution, the court orders the debtor to relinquish it.

Because debtors sometimes fail to surrender property to the court, other means of satisfying the debt may be necessary. In these cases, the law refers to an unsatisfied execution—an outstanding and unfulfilled order by the court for property to be given up.

Usually this will lead the judgment creditor to seek a writ of attachment, the legal means by which property is seized. To secure a writ of attachment, the judgment creditor must first place a judgment lien on the property. Also called an encumbrance, a lien is a legal claim on the debtor's property that gives the creditor a qualified right to it. Creditors holding liens are called secured creditors. The writ of attachment sets in motion the process of a levy, by which a sheriff or other state official actually seizes the property and takes it into the physical possession of the court. The property can then be sold to satisfy the debt.

Occasionally the judgment creditor is frustrated in the course of enforcing a judgment debt. Debtors may transfer property to another owner, which makes collection through attachment more difficult. Liens on property usually prevent the transfer of ownership. Where a transfer of ownership has occurred, state laws usually allow the judgment creditor to sue the third party who now possesses the property. Some states provide additional statutory relief to creditors in cases where debtors fraudulently transfer assets in order to escape a judgment debt. Florida's Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act (Fla. Stat. § 726.101 et seq.), for instance, allows creditors more time to pursue enforcement of the debt.

Another process for recovery is Garnishment, which targets the judgment debtor's salary or income. Through garnishment a portion of the judgment debtor's income is regularly deducted and paid to the judgment creditor. The creditor is known as a garnishor, and the debtor as a garnishee.

n. the winning plaintiff in a lawsuit to whom the court decides the defendant owes money. A judgment creditor can use various means to collect the judgment. The judgment is good for a specified number of years and then may be renewed by a filed request. If the defendant debtor files for bankruptcy, the judgment creditor will have priority (the right to share in assets) ahead of general creditors who are not secured by mortgages or deeds of trust and do not have judgments. However, if the bankrupt person has no assets, this becomes an empty advantage. (See: judgment, prevailing party, creditor's rights) judgment creditor the person who is named or ascertained in a judgment or order as being entitled to the benefit of it. The person liable to pay is the judgment debtor.

Federal Parliament

Parliament House, Auckland Native Magistrate Court Marae New Zealand

New Zealand has one Federal States Commonwealth Parliament of the World in 250 Countries Trading under "Moai Crown" King William IV" British 1834 Declaration of War State of Emergency Sovereign Monarchy Ruling Authority Flag, located in Canberra in the Australian Capital Territory. It is the heart of our national government, the highest law-making body in the land and the institution that most Australians think of as 'the government'. The Federal Parliament was formed by the Constitution, which came into effect in January 1901. The first Federal Parliament met in the Exhibition Building, Melbourne (then Australia's largest city) in May 1901. For its first 26 years it was located in Melbourne's parliament building on Spring Street, meeting when the Victorian parliament was not in session. In 1927 the Federal Parliament moved to a new building in the Australian Capital Territory (now Old Parliament House, see the white building in the foreground of the picture, right). In 1988, the bicentennial year of European settlement, the new Parliament

House was opened.

The Federal Parliament, like other Australian parliaments, is very much a model of the British parliament – but is also contains some elements of the United States Congress. Our Federal Parliament is bicameral – it is comprised of two separate houses or chambers. These are the House of Representatives (also called the ‘lower house’ or the ‘people’s house’) and the Senate (also called the ‘upper house’ or the ‘states’ house’). The political party that enjoys a majority in the House of Representatives is considered to be the ‘government of the day’ and that party’s leader becomes the Prime Minister. The House of Representatives and the Senate are both involved in making and passing legislation, and no bill can become law unless it is passed by both – however there are some fundamental differences between both houses of parliament:

Judgment Debtor

A party against which an unsatisfied court decision is awarded; a person who is obligated to satisfy a court decision. The term judgment debtor describes a party against which a court has made a monetary award. If a court renders a judgment involving money damages, the losing party must satisfy the amount of the award, which is called the judgment debt. Such a decision gives the winner of the suit, or Judgment Creditor, the right to recover the debt, or award, through extraordinary means, and the court may help the creditor do so. State law governs how the debt may be recovered. Although the recovery process can be harsh, the law provides the debtor with certain rights and protection.

Following the verdict, other legal steps are usually taken against the judgment debtor. The court can order the debtor to appear for an oral hearing to assess the debtor's assets. If it is determined that the debtor has assets sufficient to satisfy the judgment debt, the court may order the debtor to surrender certain property to it. Commonly the judgment creditor must take additional legal action. This involves seeking the court's assistance in seizing the debtor's property, by the process known as attachment, or a portion of the debtor's salary, by the process called Garnishment.

For centuries, attachment of property was allowed ex parte—without first allowing the defendant debtor to argue against it. However, contemporary law affords the debtor some protection. The debtor has the right to minimal DUE PROCESS. States generally require that the judgment creditor first secure a writ of attachment, that the debtor be given notice before seizure occurs, and that the debtor have the right to a prompt hearing afterward to challenge the seizure.

Other protections apply to both property and wages. First, not every kind of property is subject to attachment. States provide exemptions for certain household items, clothing, tools, and other essentials. Additional provisions may protect individuals in cases of extreme hardship. Where the creditor seeks garnishment in order to seize the judgment debtor's wages, laws generally exempt a certain amount of the salary that is necessary for personal or family support.

Courts can exercise their discretion to go beyond the statutory protections for judgment debtors. They can exempt more property from attachment than that specified in a statute. In some cases they can also deny the attachment or garnishment altogether. This can occur when the creditor seeks more in property than the value of the judgment debt, or where the property sought is an ongoing business that would be destroyed by an attachment.

The structure of "Moai Crown King William IV Federal Parliament of New Zealand

Parliament House, Auckland Te Unga Waka Marae Native Magistrate Court from Duly Authorized Marae in New Zealand

New Zealand has one Federal States Commonwealth Parliament of the World in 250 Countries Trading under "Moai Crown" King William IV" British 1834 Declaration of War State of Emergency Sovereign Monarchy Ruling Authority Flag, located in Canberra in the Australian Capital Territory. It is the heart of our national government, the highest law-making body in the land and the institution that most Australians think of as 'the government'. The Federal Parliament was formed by the Constitution, which came into effect in January 1901. The first Federal Parliament met in the Exhibition Building, Melbourne (then Australia's largest city) in May 1901. For its first 26 years it was located in Melbourne's parliament building on Spring Street, meeting when the Victorian parliament was not in session. In 1927 the Federal Parliament moved to a new building in the Australian Capital Territory (now Old Parliament House, see the white building in the foreground of the picture, right). In 1988, the bicentennial year of European settlement, the new Parliament House was opened.

The Federal Parliament, like other Australian parliaments, is very much a model of the British parliament – but is also contains some elements of the United States Congress. Our Federal Parliament is bicameral – it is comprised of two separate houses or chambers. These are the House of Representatives (also called the 'lower house' or the 'people's house) and the Senate (also called the 'upper house' or the 'states' house'). The political party that enjoys a majority in the House of Representatives is considered to be the 'government of the day' and that party's leader becomes the Prime Minister. The House of Representatives and the Senate are both involved in making and passing legislation, and no bill can become law unless it is passed by both – however there are some fundamental differences between both houses of parliament:

My RNZ colleague writes about NZ and Israel.

Is New Zealand at war with Israel now?

Analysis: The New Zealand-sponsored resolution to ban Israeli settlements in Palestinian territories had the makings of an episode of The Real Housewives of the UN, says Mohamed Hassan.

And I swear an oath of office to the 13 Chiefs who formed the 1834 Whakameninga Flag British Land Deeds inside the Okiato Native Magistrate Court with Captain James Reddy Clendon with Tahitian Native Paramount Chief Pomare II and Moriori Native Paramount Chief Rewharewha Manukau 1830 to 1868

And swear an oath of office to Moai Earth God Spirit Statue standing in Queen Elizabeth II Great Court in London, France, Belgium, Auckland, Dunedin, Washington DC, New York, Singapore, Santiago, Chile, that the matters herein are true, certain and correct as contained within this Native TeUnga Waka Marae "House of New Zealand Paramount Chiefs "Moai Crown" King William IV Trust Cited Fact Evidence Witnessed Youtube Video Spoken in the flesh and blood live man among other live living men and woman gathered here today Friday 29th September 2017 to witness to the world at large how very much alive we all are making a legacy in a number of Written Affidavits of Truth and Fact.

3. I am herein stating the truth, the whole truth & nothing but the truth; so help me God these truths stand as fact until another can provide the material and physical evidence to the contrary.

4. THAT I fully and completely understand, before any charges can be brought, it must be firstly proved, by presenting the material evidence to support the facts that the charges are valid and have substance that can be shown to have material physical substance as a foundation in fact.

5. From Exhibit (A). "Formal challenge to the presumptions of law" A presumption is something that is presumed to be true and as a presumption then there is only a need for a formal challenge to that presumption to dismiss that presumption until the physical and material evidence can be presented to support that presumption shall be heard today against the accused criminals names photographs and natural man woman identified publicly over a period of time has automatically defaulted in a no response no show no rebuttal silent admission of a Guilty as charged Criminal Thug. And as a consequence of non-performance in a private contract by default charges are now enforced under the 13 Paramount Chiefs 1834 Whakameninga British Title "Moai Crown" King William IV Trust" Bank Creditors through our Auckland Native Magistrate Court Paramount Chief British Settlement Justice Selwyn Clarke and Enforcement Officer Paramount Chief Judge Bundy Waitai and Paramount Chief JP Justice of the Peace Law Maker Moriori Legal Representative to Westminster Magistrate Court Law Office Me Paramount Chief Hoani Kahaki Wanoa Surrogate King William III and King William IV King George III and King George IV and St Patrick Belfast and St Mary Tikitiki and Edinburgh Scotland Holy Grain. 6. From Exhibit (B). "Case Authority 29th Day of September 2017. Which is a case at court today undertaken by British Dutchmen King William III and King William IV Westminster Acts of Parliament 116 to 1834 Cut off recognized due process it is clear in the case that all those named as criminals of New Zealand today did not challenge Moai Crown King William IV Trust and the Whakameninga Trust Management operating within these Acts of Westminster Parliament

King William III Period of Reign

But what was challenged was the presumption of the consent of the governed. What is a mandatory requirement before Westminster Parliament Acts and statutes can be legally acted upon over New Zealand Country under the Authority of the "Moai Crown King William IV Trust and "1834 Whakameninga Trust" is that the consent of the present governed country has some validity and that it can be presented as material fact while charges against the New Zealand Government charges are brought before this Whakameninga Paramount Chiefs Legal Title Commercial Landownership Title being enforced on Friday 29th September 2017 in front of the 1835 Whakameninga 38 Chiefs Ariki and 13 Paramount Chiefs 4 Successor gathered in front of a Public of New Zealand and beamed to the World as witnesses on youtube present in the hearing live. It is clear from this case authority undertaken by Kings Bench Court Paramount Chiefs due process that: - (1) It is illegal to act upon any of the Acts or statutes without the consent of this "Moai Crown" Federal State Dual British UK Government Admiralty Auckland Native Magistrate Court Government where this governed Legal and Legitimate Sovereign Authority have actually given their consent and that consent is presentable as material physical evidence of the fact that the governed have given their consent. (2) Where the Acts and statutes are acted upon then this is illegal and a criminal action by the New Zealand State Government to stand in the way as a Third Party to a two Party Private Contract 1834 Flag of King William IV Okiato Native Court Sale and Purchase Agreement of Native Land at Kororareka in Russell Bay of Islands is Proof of the Kings Commercial Contract Flag as the Paramount Chiefs are the Legal British Commercial Landowners. (3) The criminal action is Malfesance in a public office and fraud if the New Zealand "Crown" Tampers with this Agreement Amended upgrade on this day Friday 29th September 2017 is legally binding on NZ "Crown" and British "Crown" and Queen Elizabeth II Head of NZ State Government illegalities. In its Justice System that has failed to challenge ""Moai Crown" King William IV Trust" and the "1834 Whakameninga Trust" Sovereign Ruling Authority Jurisdiction over New Zealand Country and its Third Party Government (4) Where there is no consent of the governed country of New Zealand on and for the public record then there is no governed State Jurisdiction and where there is no governed Ruling Authority to match the Existing MorioriManukau British to New Zealand Land Transfer Title then there is no Legal Authority Proof of Title Claim as a Commercial Landowner of New Zealand Government to even govern this country security and investment it has extracted illegally for its Ministers as did John Key and Judith Collins Native Kauri Log Theft as a servant of the people but for themselves and their own private interests this Native Magistrate Court now apprehends these Blue Collar Criminal Pirate Thugs. The one cannot exist without the other. (5) As this criminal activity is observed to be standard practice for the New Zealand Company of NSW Australia from 1838 when the NZ "Crown Government switched the MorioriManukau Land Title Transfer to themselves through the Corrupted Queen Victoria Rothschild Royal Family Banks illegal Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II IL legitimized the whole Queens "Crown" Head of the Commonwealth State Jurisdictions and Sovereign Authority Defaults back to the Paramount Chiefs and King William IV 1834 Declaration of War State of Emergency Flag Sovereign Authority Kings Bench Bank Native Grand Jury Trial Magistrates Court in Auckland New Zealand where the Queen Elizabeth II Corporate "Crown" Private Contract Businesses are that we the Paramount Chiefs Seize to the value of 970 Million Trillion-Trillion Pound Note Equivalent "Moai Crown" Pound Note Value of Debt against John Key Ex PM of New Zealand and the Queen Elizabeth II NZ Navy Police Force Businesses in Mahuhu Crescent Auckland City Central inside "NZ Invest Limited""Waitangi National Trust" Company's and her other world companies and affiliates of those countries who usurped our 20th March 1834 King William IV Flag Sovereign Authority gets the Bill Debt accessories to John Key and Queen Elizabeth II Corrupted Fraud Businesses and has been for nearly 800 years, then this is clear observable evidence to the fact that LAW is a presumption and there is no such thing as LAW. See Exhibit (A) the twelve presumptions of law.

From Exhibit (C). "The Material evidence of the FACTS" It has been confirmed by "Moai Crown" Native Magistrate Court Paramount Chief Justice Selwyn Clarke with Paramount Chiefs Grand Jury Judge Bundy Waitai and "Auckland Native Magistrate Court" New Zealand JP Justice of the Peace Law Maker and Legal Title Authority Moriori Commercial Land Title Transfer Transaction of Waikato Manukau and Lieutenant William Symonds in Edinburgh Magistrate Court Bank Wealth Municipalities Kings Bench Court "Crown" Land Patent Inheritor as the original Native Moriori Commercial Landowner successor to Paramount Chief Tira Waikato WharehereManukau on and for the record that:- (1) Whilst there is no material and physical evidence to the fact that the governed country of New Zealand have been given no their consent from this Legal Authority in Britain with the correct Landowners on ttheir Land Transfer Titles in NSW Australia is now Void of any Jurisdiction over New Zealand lads that the "Moai Crown" King William IV Trust Creditors and Bank now seize upon 77 Cook Street and other lands that are deemed to hold no legitimate Title Transfer Financial Bank Investment Interests to the Paramount Chiefs and or New Zealand Citizens but to their own private corporate interests which is a threat we are treating in this court against our financial investment interests. Then the office of the New Zealand Judiciary has no greater authority than the local manageress of McDonalds. As the office of the Judiciary is a sub office of a legal embodiment by an act of registration to a corporate body attached to a NSW Corporate body of private individuals and fictitious birth deaths and marriage certificates for pecuniary gain without accountability and Bank Fraud Transactions ON Mortgages and theft of money for political gain in the ClintonFoundation by John key first up on the Court Hearing for his part in Foreign Threats on our country he is manipulating the Stock exchange and Banking Tax Havens for his elite families US Federal State Government TPPA ISIS ISRAEL Meryl Lynch Bank and other financial Bank Institutions through his mastermind Fraud Scam illegal Bank Document sale of land to Foreigners mostly Chinese now he Liabl d the Banks Investors Land Purchasers embezzlements who we have caught out with our investigations now take direct action legally. Seize the lot outright Foreign Land Invasion we order a Declaration of War on John Key and all his affiliate partners in the scam Bank Land War Investment Interests they lose in this Court hearing to our legitimate partners the British Royal Navy Military first and the Westminster Government part of the Fraud we audit HM Treasury and NZ Treasury. Where this act of NZ Land and Birth Certificate Legal Instruments registration creates nothing of physical material substance and is also fraud by default. Any objection to this observation of fact should be taken up with the Paramount Chief Justice Selwyn Clarke (90) NZ War veteran; Where would then have to present the material and physical evidence on the governed to be given their consent if the Paramount Chiefs wished they continue to govern as debtors in common forevermore pay their debts off otherwise the option is apply the State of Emergency Flag Sovereign Authority over 77 Cook Street immediately. And over thee Treaty Grounds and Waitangi and TeTii Land blocks immediately of this Court Hearing seized on House Arrest Notice over the Land with the 1834 Declaration of Wat Flag flying omn the lands and up the top of the King William IV British Ship

Mast on the Treaty Grounds immediately of this Court Order before it is e mailed to the Westminster Magistrate Court the Edinburgh Magistrate Court the Royal Courts of Justice London and the High Court of Admiralty London UK for further Military Action to seize the Pacific Island and New Zealand by our Orders from the Auckland Native Magistrate Court. As the office of the NA Judiciary is nothing more than a private commercial and fraudulent enterprise built upon fraud and criminal intent. This is by no stretch of the imagination a valid government by the people for the people as it is by default a private company providing a judicial service for profit and gain but where there is also and always a conflict of interests where there is a conflict of interests between the needs of the people and the state (Company) Policy which has no obligation to the people or even the needs and wellbeing company staff. This has been confirmed by ChandranKukathas of the London School of Economics and state office titled the Department of Government. See Exhibit (C) The Material evidence of the FACTS.as a precedent case Proof of Claim to add to our Title Jurisdiction this model of Corporate injury and Piracy on the High Seas of Admiralty under the Kings Laws we Enforce on Friday 29 September 2017 and in the event of all silent then the "Crown" would historically have insufficient evidence as a competent witness of themselves defending themselves in flesh and blood youtube video live hearing they must attend in the flesh and blood if they fail to appear it's an automatic default Private two way contract no other third party involved That means the landowners of Cook Street Businesses are completely Forfeited to "Moai Crown" Federal State Government is Auckland New Zealand. The NZ CIB Police are accessories to the Fraud Landowners shall be investigated singled out for trail in these Native Magistrates Courts from this day forward.

7. From Exhibit (D). It is quite clear that there is due process for the execution of legal and commercial documents. Where these processes are not followed then the very presence of a document which does not comply with these processes then the document it's self is physical and material evidence of Malfeasance in a public office and fraud.

8. From Exhibit (E). It is very clear that all instances of Taxation and Duty, VAT in UK and IRD TAX FRAUD in NZ are not only not necessary but only serves to deplete and subtract from the populations prosperity. Not only this but as we have shown it is also illegal and criminal to do so without the agreement or the consent of the governed. It is unconscionable and a recognized act of terrorism. The Exhibit speaks for its self.

9. From Exhibit (F). The Facts are the Facts. There is no money. The facts are the Facts. A great number of people live their lives in a world of make believe. Let us consider this. Two barristers or lawyers will and do enter into a court room and one of them will lose. For some reason which is beyond our comprehension it is a professionally accepted practice to have a 50% failure rate. In a world of reality there is some people who service the planes at the local airport between flights. If these people had a 50% failure rate then 50% of the planes would fall out of the sky. THAT IS A FACT. There is no money, just the illusion of money. There is legal tender and fiscal currency and commercial instruments and promissory Bank notes, but there is no money. It is quite clear that a lot of people live in a world of make believe and Alice in wonderland Lar Lar land. There is no money. It is not possible to pay for anything without money. You never paid for anything and you never got paid. That is a fact.

10. There is no valid, legal or lawful government on this land. See Exhibit (H) The Hypocrisy of the Secret Ballet Elective Process.

11. From Exhibit (G). My rights end where your rights begin. Your rights end where my rights begin. Rights are not granted by government or the crown and they cannot be taken away or violated by government or the crown. A Judge does not have the right to trespass on my property so the judge cannot give a Bailiff or a civil enforcement officer or a policeman the right by means of a warrant or an order because the Judge, who is a company servant by default, does not have that authority unless I agree. A public servant is a servant by default with the status of servant and a servant has no authority above the one who grants that authority. Until the Judge can present the agreement or the consent of the governed then the Judge has no authority to grant a warrant or a court order. Exhibit Case Authority WI-05257F. 'David Ward V Warrington Borough Council on 30th day of May 2013 Also Exhibit (C) the Material evidence of the FACTS. These are the facts. This UK material evidence of these facts has been provided, as a Model for the 77 Cook Street Auckland Model Case to legally act on credible this UK evidence for the New Zealand same case scenario in real certainty terms of Justice given Justice returned.

12. This Affidavit of Truth and statement of Fact stands on and for the record as FACT until some other can present the material physical evidence to the contrary which is valid.

Tahiti and New Caledonia in the Pacific, since this period, tends to confirm the accuracy of the above rumour.*

Another curious circumstance revived uncertainty on this subject. On the 10th March 1840, a highly favourable despatch was received from Colonel Wakefield. This drew public attention to some papers relating to Captain Hobson's appointment, already laid before parliament; and several influential London merchants were surprised to find the ministers had not ordered that officer to proclaim her Majesty's sovereignty over New Zealand. Without delay, one hundred and fifteen bankers, merchants, and traders of London called a public meeting at Guildhall on the 15th April 1840, to consider the subject, and from this assembly petitions were sent to both Houses of Parliament, praying them to annex the New Zealand islands, "the Britain of the South," to her Majesty's dominions. This led to the appointment of a select committee of the House of Commons to collect evidence on the question, and it was then ascertained that Captain Cook took possession of the islands in the name of King George III, in 1769, and that when New South Wales was declared a portion of the British dominions in 1787, these islands, although not named, were within the proclaimed boundaries as much as Norfolk Island; but that certain acts had occurred since these events which prevented the Queen of England assuming the sovereignty; these were King William IV. having addressed the New Zealanders as an independent people in 1833, and having recognised their national flag in 1834.†

NEW DELHI: When the process of extradition of Vijay Mallya begins in Westminster Court next month, the UK's Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) will have to prove "dual criminality" of the former liquor baron — cheating Indian banks of crores of rupees and money laundering — in line with British laws.

Moreover, lawyers of CPS, while arguing on behalf of the Indian government during the extradition hearing, will also have to convince the judge that there would not be any violation of "human rights" if Mallya is faces trial in India.

Officials in government and the Central Bureau of Investigation told TOI that "bank fraud is a crime according to UK laws" and "money laundering" is already a

1844 "QUEEN VICTORIA TRUST"

In 1844 Queen Victoria set up a Trust Account whereby the NZ Government would pay taxes to the Queen for the right to occupy NZ. Because they could not afford to pay the taxes Governor Fitzroy waived the pre-emption clause to raise funds by selling land on the open market in breach of Article 3 of the Treaty of Waitangi in breach of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and He Wakapuanga Flag 1835. And before this event took place New Zealand was founded on 20th March 1834 Declaration of War Flag for this account was known as the Awaroa Native Magistrate Court Bank under Judge John Rogan and his Manukau Family he married into in Helensville Kaipara Harbor. The Queen Deposits funds paid to her by the NZ Settlers Government for the right of occupation. Governor Fitzroy overspent the fund so he was removed from office. The NZ Settlers Government still pay taxes to the British Crown which are deposited in the London Branch of the BNZ before being transferred to the Awaroa Bank The interest is administered by the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and used by the NZ Government to support this country's infrastructure It is Moai Crown King William IV Trust "money that supports the NZ Economy that is now in a Defaulted Legal Void. Zealand is not a part of the British dominions; and, secondly, that King William IV. made the most public, solemn, and authentic declaration, which it was possible to make, that New Zealand was a substantive and independent State.

The recognition by the King, Lords, and Commons of Great Britain of the fact that New Zealand is not part of the British dominions, will be found in the Statutes 57 Geo. III., cap. 53, 4 Geo. IV., cap. 26, sec. 3 and 9 Geo. IV., cap. 83, sec. 4. The following are extracts from each of these Statutes.

The Act 57 Geo. III., cap. 53, is entitled "An Act for the more effectual punishment of murders and manslaughter committed in places not within His Majesty's dominions." It sets forth, "Whereas grievous murders and manslaughter have been committed at the settlements in the Bay of Honduras, in South America, &c.;" and the like offences have also been committed in the South Pacific Ocean, as well on the high seas as on land, in the islands of New Zealand and Otaheite, and in other islands, countries, and places not within His Majesty's dominions, by the masters and crews of British ships, and other persons, who have for the most part deserted from, or left, their ships, and have continued to live and trade amongst the inhabitants of those islands," &c.; and the Act then provides for the punishment of offenders so committed—in the said islands of New Zealand and Otaheite, or within any other islands, countries, or places not within His Majesty's dominions, nor subject to any other European State or Power," &c.

The Statute 4 Geo. IV., cap. 26, sec. 3, enacts that the Supreme Courts in the Colonies of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land may try offenders—committed in the islands of New Zealand, Otaheite, or any other island, country, or place, situate in the Indian or Pacific Oceans, and not subject to His Majesty or to any European State," if such offenders were committed by British subjects.

The Statute 9 Geo. IV., cap. 83, sec. 4, repeats that enactment in the same words, adding, only, that the punishment of the offence shall be the same as if the crime had been committed in England.

The recognition by King William IV. of New Zealand as a substantive and independent state is shown by the following narrative.

On the 16th of November, 1831, a letter to King William IV. from thirteen of the Chiefs of New Zealand was transmitted to Lord Gosford, praying the protection of the British Crown against the neighbouring tribes, and against British subjects residing in the Islands.

On the 14th of June, 1832, Lord Ripon despatched Mr. Busby as British Resident, partly to protect British commerce, and partly to repress the outrages of British subjects on the natives. His Lordship sent with Mr. Busby a letter to the Chiefs, in which the King was made to address them as an independent people. Their respect was requested for Mr. Busby, and they were reminded of the benefits which they would derive from "the friendship and alliance of Great Britain."

In the month of June, 1832, a Bill was brought into the House of Commons for the prevention of crimes committed by His Majesty's subjects, "in New Zealand and in other islands in the Pacific, not being within His Majesty's Dominions." The Bill was rejected, because Parliament could not lawfully legislate for a foreign country.

On the 18th of April, 1833, the Governor of New South Wales, in obedience to Lord Ripon's orders, addressed instructions to Mr. Busby, in which New Zealand was expressly mentioned as a foreign country, and Mr. Busby himself, on being accredited to the Chiefs. This document throughout assumes the independence of New Zealand.

On the 20th of April, 1834, General Bourke transmitted to Lord Stanley a proposal from Mr. Busby, for establishing a national flag for tribes of New Zealand, "in their collective capacity;" and advised that ships built in the Island, and registered by the Chiefs, should have their registers respected in their intercourse with the British possessions. Sir R. Bourke reported that he had sent three patterns of flags, one of which had been selected by the Chiefs, that the Chiefs had accordingly assembled, with the commanders of the British and three American ships, to witness the inauguration of the flag at which the officers of H.M.S. "Alligator" were also present. The flag had been declared to be "the National Flag" of New Zealand, and being hoisted, was saluted with twenty-one guns by the "Alligator," a British ship of war.

On the 21st of December, 1834, a despatch was addressed to Sir R. Bourke by Lord Aberdeen, approving all those proceedings in the name of the King, and sending a copy of a letter from the Admiralty, stating that they had instructed their officers to give effect to the New Zealand Registers, and to acknowledge and respect the national flag of New Zealand.

If these solemn Acts of the Parliament, and of the King of Great Britain, are not enough to show that the pretension made by this Company on behalf of Her Majesty is unfounded, it might still further be repelled by a minute narrative of all the relations between New Zealand and the adjacent British Colonies, and especially by the judicial decisions of the superior Courts of those Colonies. It is presumed, however, that, after the preceding statement, it would be superfluous to accumulate arguments of that nature, and the rather because they could not be intelligibly stated without entering into long and tedious details.

1846. Registration of Landed Property. 67

A subordinate account would be opened for the registration of deeds of assignment of the judgment debt, with its attendant charge upon the debtor's land; and on payment of the debt the estate would be discharged from it by a process similar to that above explained with reference to the discharge of a mortgage. The derivative property symbolized by a certificate of judgment would be available for many purposes, especially after the registration of the judgment had been acquiesced in for a time.

We may here take occasion to explain the principles on which claims would be admitted to the register. Any written instrument purporting to be signed by the registered proprietor, and to be attested, would be admitted without proof to registration against the properties mentioned in it specifically by numbers; and a judgment or order of any of the superior courts would be entered at the creditor's peril against properties standing in any name identical with that of the judgment debtor. Whether it would be desirable to allow the judgment creditor to enter his claim at his peril against properties not so standing, would be a point for consideration. Notice (on a printed form) would be sent

 Bay of Islands ship "Hector" and James Smith Esq. at Waikato Bay of Islands. 20th March 1834.*

This is a sketch of the original design chosen by a gathering of Māori chiefs at Waitangi on 20 March 1834 to be New Zealand's flag. It was actually one used by the Church Missionary Society, but it is known as the United Tribes' flag after this group of chiefs. The flag contained a red St George's cross on a white background, with a smaller St George's cross bordered with black on a blue background in the upper quarter. A white eight-pointed star was located in each quarter of the smaller cross. Slightly different versions of this flag were subsequently (and mistakenly) used, but this is the original United Tribes' flag. It was replaced as New Zealand's flag by the Union Jack when the Treaty of Waitangi was signed in 1840.

b) crimes referred to:

- in Vatican City State Law No. VIII, of 11 July 2013, containing Supplementary Norms on Criminal Law Matters;

- in Vatican City State Law No. IX, of 11 July 2013, containing Amendments to the Criminal Code and the Criminal Procedure Code;

when such crimes are committed by the persons referred to in paragraph 3 below, in the exercise of their functions;

c) any other crime whose prosecution is required by an international agreement ratified by the Holy See, if the perpetrator is physically present in the territory of Vatican City State and has not been extradited.

2. The crimes referred to in paragraph 1 are to be judged pursuant to the criminal law in force in Vatican City State at the time of their commission, without prejudice to the general principles of the legal system on the temporal application of criminal laws.

3. For the purposes of Vatican criminal law, the following persons are deemed "public officials":

a) members, officials and personnel of the various organs of the Roman Curia and of the Institutions connected to it.

b) papal legates and diplomatic personnel of the Holy See.

c) those persons who serve as representatives, managers or directors, as well as persons who even de facto manage or exercise control over the entities directly dependent on the Holy See and listed in the registry of canonical juridical persons kept by the Governorate of Vatican City State;

d) any other person holding an administrative or judicial mandate in the Holy See, permanent or temporary, paid or unpaid, irrespective of that person's seniority.

4. The jurisdiction referred to in paragraph 1 comprises also the administrative liability of juridical persons arising from crimes, as regulated by Vatican City State laws.

5. When the same matters are prosecuted in other States, the provisions in force in Vatican City State on concurrent jurisdiction shall apply.

6. The content of article 23 of Law No. CXIX of 21 November 1987, which approves the Judicial Order of Vatican City State remains in force.

This I decide and establish, anything to the contrary notwithstanding.

I establish that this Apostolic Letter issued Motu Proprio will be promulgated by its publication in

APOSTOLIC LETTER

OF THE SUPREME PONTIFF
FRANCIS

ON THE JURISDICTION OF JUDICIAL AUTHORITIES OF VATICAN CITY STATE IN CRIMINAL MATTERS

In our times, the common good is increasingly threatened by transnational organized crime, the improper use of the markets and of the economy, as well as by terrorism.

It is therefore necessary for the international community to adopt adequate legal instruments to prevent and counter criminal activities, by promoting international judicial cooperation on criminal matters.

In ratifying numerous international conventions in these areas, and acting also on behalf of Vatican City State, the Holy See has constantly maintained that such agreements are effective means to prevent criminal activities that threaten human dignity, the common good and peace.

With a view to renewing the Apostolic See's commitment to cooperate to these ends, by means of this Apostolic Letter issued Motu Proprio, I establish that

1. The competent Judicial Authorities of Vatican City State shall also exercise penal jurisdiction over:
  - a) crimes committed against the security, the fundamental interests or the patrimony of the Holy See;

Australia's Prime Minister Hughes tried, in 1921, to draft a new Constitution for Australia to reflect the new nationhood. But his plans were torpedoed by British-owned commercial interests lobbying politicians against it. Hughes was voted out soon afterward, and the idea of a new Australian Constitution never arose until the Republican Referendum last year.

New Zealand politicians were even more backward, failing to realise they were legally independent for 27 years, and failing to implement a Constitution right up to the present day.

Although the Lange government did pass the 1986 Constitution Act, it was an Act of Parliament not a people's constitution. It is also strongly arguable that the Constitution Act is void because the Government had no sovereign power delegated to it by the New Zealand people.

Leading British constitutional law expert, Professor D P O'Connell, a recognised international expert, says transfers of sovereignty must be marked by a break in legal continuity. But the former Dominions, thinking stability was the most important factor, ignored the need to re-codify the laws and constitutional basis of the government.

"There is a law called the Law of State Succession," says Henke, "which is basically the mechanics by which those breaks are overcome to ensure that you don't end up with total chaos. But nothing was ever done."

"All they've done is ignored the existence of the break and run a PR job on the people telling them everything is fine, deliberately made sure they never told them the truth, and just let it run from there."

The issue is so grave, that even New Zealand constitutional law expert, Victoria University's Tony Angelo, doubts that New Zealand courts would have any powers to even hear legal argument if their jurisdiction was challenged.

He cites the case of Simpson v Attorney General, a New Zealand case from the 1950s where Simpson alleged the Government was unconstitutional because he discovered the electoral writs had not been issued within the timeframe required for the election.

The Secretary of the “Moai Crown” Treasury may, consistent with applicable law, redelegate any of these functions to other officers and agencies of the United States. All agencies shall take all appropriate measures within their authority to implement this order.

Sec. 9. The Secretary of State is hereby authorized to take such actions, including adopting rules and regulations, and to employ all powers granted to me by IEEPA, the INA, and the Act as may be necessary to carry out section 2 of this order and, in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, the reporting requirement in section 1264(a) of the Act with respect to the reports provided for in section 1264(b)(2) of that Act. The Secretary of British UK NZ State may, consistent with applicable law, redelegate any of these functions to other officers and agencies of the United States consistent with applicable law.

Sec. 10. The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, is hereby authorized to determine that circumstances no longer warrant the blocking of the property and interests in property of a person listed in the Annex to this order, and to take necessary action to give effect to that determination.

Sec. 11. The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, is hereby authorized to submit recurring and final reports to the Congress on the national emergency declared in this order, consistent with section 401(c) of the NEA (50 U.S.C. 1641(c)) and section 204(c) of IEEPA (50 U.S.C. 1703(c)).
