1844 "QUEEN VICTORIA TRUST"

In 1844 Queen Victoria set up an Account whereby the NZ Government would pay taxes to the Queen for the right to occupy NZ. Because they could not afford to pay the taxes Governor Fitzroy waived the pre-emption clause to raise funds by selling land on the open market in breach of Article 3 of the Treaty of Waitangi. <https://youtu.be/3pS2mqauy> in this account was known as the Akaroa Bank. The Queen Deposits funds paid to her by the NZ Settlers Government for the right of occupation. Governor Fitzroy overspent the fund so he was removed from office.

The NZ Settlers Government still pay taxes to the British Crown which are deposited in the London Branch of the BNZ before being transferred to the Akaroa Bank The interest is administered by the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and used by the NZ Government to support this country’s infrastructure. It is Maori money that supports the NZ Economy.

In the light of the largest leak in journalistic history, it can be somewhat hard to gather information because there's so much to take in. If you're not familiar with the Panama Papers leak - links here: ICIJ and Süddeutsche Zeitung

I have compiled an easy to read, linear, list with all the high profile people involved, and everything you need to know about them in regards to the leak. I do, however, not take any credit for the incredible journalism done by The International Consortium of Investigative Journalists (ICIJ).

Brace yourselves, it's a long list:

Heads of state and government

Original Ututaonga Te Tii Land Blocks with only One House on it in the whole Paihia Bay of Islands I hold this Land Title of the Admiralty Court Martial Law of King William IV used in the Philippines where our "Queen Victoria Trust" Gold is.

18 Te Tii Block
14 FEB 1928
Appn for investigation of title
See MS 1/17-5, 16-7, and MS 9/11-8

Judgment

The Native Land Court is asked by the Natives on these proceedings to hold that the whole of the Te Tii Block shown on sketch-plan 12543 (with the exception of an area of 81½ acres at Te Tii Point already clothed with title) is Native Customary or Papatupu land, with respect to which the Court is authorised to make an Order on Investigation of Title. The Court is further asked to decide which Natives are entitled to inclusion as owners, and in what relative shares.

The application is opposed by the Crown as to two areas of 540 acres and 20 acres respectively, which are claimed to be "surplus lands" and so to belong to the Crown.

Sketch-plan 12543 has been approved by the Chief Surveyor and accepted by the Court as a sufficient sketch-plan for the purpose of this investigation. It divides up the total area as follows:-

Area investigated (1890 - 1891)	= 81½ acres
Area admitted by Crown to be Native Customary land	= 50½ acres
Area taken for road	= 20 acres
Area claimed by Crown	= 540 acres
Total	692 acres

This total corresponds sufficiently with the original estimate of 702 acres.

The Crown admits that an area of 50½ acres to the south-east of the 81½ acre piece shown on sketch-plan 12543 is Native Customary Land, but the reason for such admission was not made clear to the Court by evidence at the hearing.

The Court, after examining the old records and particularly the minutes in Northern Minute Books 10 and 11, and after perusing the evidence given in the present proceedings, has no hesitation in holding that the areas (540 acres and 20 acres) claimed by the Crown to be "Surplus Lands" are not "Surplus Lands" but comprise portions of an area originally estimated to contain 702 acres which was formally handed back to the Natives by Archdeacon Henry Williams, the accredited representative of the Church Missionary Society, on the 7th June 1839, prior to the signing of the Treaty of Waitangi in 1840.

No evidence has been given on behalf of the Crown to show that the land was handed back to the Natives after the Treaty of Waitangi. Indeed, in order to substantiate the Crown claim that the area in dispute is Crown land, it would be necessary for the Crown to show that Archdeacon Henry Williams committed a deliberate fraud upon the Crown by ante-dating the document to the 7th June 1839. The Crown representative has not attempted to allege or to prove any fraud, nor does the Court think that any grounds could be found for imputing fraud.

Northern Minute Book 10 folio 162 (under date 15-9-1890) states that the document of transfer dated 7th June 1839 from Henry Williams to Te Kereama and the Natives of the Bay of Islands was produced
